

Henley-Putnam University offers a unique focus for those who want to pursue a career in Strategic Security. Gain expertise to advance your career in a U.S. Federal government intelligence or security agency such as the CIA, DHS, DIA, DoD, FBI, NSA, Secret Service, and others.

Our programs help prepare you for a career in the Intelligence Community (IC), with contractors supporting the IC, and/or with other government agencies actively involved in Strategic Security.

Our courses were developed specifically to teach the necessary background and analytical tools required by these government organizations.

“My coursework at Henley-Putnam University helps me to think more critically and operate more effectively as a Joint Terrorism Task Force Agent with DHS. While earning my degree, my knowledge and understanding of terrorist techniques, history, and doctrine have been greatly expanded and enriched.”

TOP TWO REASONS TO CHOOSE HENLEY-PUTNAM

1. FOCUS

Henley-Putnam University specializes exclusively in Strategic Security. Our unique focus is on teaching how to identify threats to national security, and to proactively prevent attacks, not merely react to them—furthering knowledge in deterrence and prevention.

2. FACULTY

Henley-Putnam University faculty members have served in senior positions in the CIA, USSS, FBI, DIA, NSA, and British Intelligence, as well as all branches of the U.S. Armed Services, as well as local, state and federal law enforcement. Our expert faculty includes more than 80 seasoned professionals, each with an average of 17 years of operational experience.

Over one-third of our instructors are published in their field of expertise and more than 80% hold advanced degrees, many from world-renowned schools such as Cambridge, Berkeley, Stanford, Georgetown, and Yale.

This experience makes our faculty members uniquely equipped to share practical field expertise with Henley-Putnam students.
